Aims and purposes of Muslim education.

Islam placed a high value on education, and, as the faith spread among diverse peoples, education became an important channel through which to create a universal and cohesive social order. By the middle of the 9th century, knowledge was divided into three categories:

the Islamic sciences,

Most of the writings in Islamic education by the classical scholars were associated with inculcation of ethical and moral conduct from childhood.<sup>40</sup>In
