Shadows Robin Mckinley
I adore Robin Mckinley, I've read Rose Daughter something like fourteen times, it was my go-to comfort read when I was in high school. That said, Shadows was fantastic all over the place. It's full of patented Robin Mckinley magic: extended adoptive family units, a band of (for the most part) animal companions and a lovely, satisfying romance.

Shadows by Robin Mckinley - Goodreads
I have been reading Robin Mckinley's books for over 20 years, and I am always excited to get her latest novel. Reading Shadows was something like a homecoming for me; it was pleasant and heart-warming, but not particularly surprising. It had all the standard, familiar characteristics that almost all Mckinley's books share.
